

HOW MANY MORE CHILDREN'S LIVES WILL END BY GUNFIRE?

(Mrs. LOWEY asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend her remarks.)

Mrs. LOWEY. Mr. Speaker, how many more children's lives will be ended by gunfire? How many more tears will parents shed?

□ 1015

Mr. Speaker, it is time to act. We must pass gun safety legislation now.

Mr. Speaker, I am here to continue the roll of names of children who have been killed by gunfire since Columbine:

Dominic E. Johnson, age 16, killed by gunfire on June 1, 1999, St. Louis, Missouri;

A.J. Flores, age 13, killed by gunfire on June 2, 1999, Grand Prairie, Texas;

William Floyd, age 18, killed by gunfire on June 2, 1999, Washington, D.C.;

Ricky Salizar, age 12, killed by gunfire on June 2, 1999, Roswell, New Mexico;

Rodney Nelson, age 17, killed by gunfire on June 3, 1999, Detroit, Michigan.

DEFEAT H.R. 1402, CONSOLIDATION OF MILK MARKETING ORDERS

(Mr. GUTKNECHT asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. GUTKNECHT. Mr. Speaker, for 62 years dairy farmers in the upper Midwest have been placed at a competitive disadvantage. For 62 years we have received less for our milk simply because we are closer to Eau Claire, Wisconsin. No other product in America is priced based on where it comes from and what it goes into, only milk.

In response to this, a couple of years ago Congress authorized the Secretary of Agriculture to come up with modest reforms. Dairy farmers have spoken. They voted in a plebiscite to endorse Secretary Glickman's modest proposal.

Mr. Speaker, out in the Midwest we have an expression: A deal is a deal; and a bargain is a bargain.

The farmers have spoken, but unfortunately we are going to have a great debate today to undo those modest reforms.

Mr. Speaker and colleagues, please as we listen to this debate today, we should vote our consciences, not the special interests, defeat H.R. 1402.

THIS CONGRESS WILL NOT PASS REAL GUN SAFETY LEGISLATION

(Ms. JACKSON-LEE of Texas asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend her remarks.)

Ms. JACKSON-LEE of Texas. Mr. Speaker, today I stand here to offer the names of dead children, the names of children who were killed by guns since Columbine. I represent the mothers whose tears will not dry and the fathers who have broken hearts because of the loss of their children because this Congress will not pass real gun safety reform.

So this morning, Mr. Speaker, I am here to continue the roll of our dead children:

Robert J. Prough, age 13, killed by gunfire on June 4, 1999, Beaver Dam, Wisconsin;

Maurice Jiles, age 18, killed by gunfire on June 5, 1999, Gary, Indiana;

Joseph Sweeney, age 18, killed by gunfire on June 5, 1999, Washington, D.C.;

Lawanza Robinson, age 18, killed by gunfire on June 16, 1999, Detroit, Michigan;

Blaine Reeves, age 15, killed by gunfire on June 9, 1999, Atlanta, Georgia;

Raphael Rivera, age 14, killed by gunfire on June 10, 1999, Harrisburg, Pennsylvania;

Shannon Smith, age 14, killed by gunfire on June 14, 1999, Phoenix, Arizona;

Brandon Williams, age 3, killed by gunfire on June 15, 1999, Hollywood, Florida.

PORKER OF THE WEEK AWARD

(Mr. HEFLEY asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Mr. HEFLEY. A study from the General Accounting Office reveals that President Clinton's trips last year to Africa, China, and Chile cost more than $72 million. The President's six-nation tour of Africa required advanced, 10 separate advance, trips to arrange the itinerary, 1300 military and civilian officials, more than 200 White House aides, 13 helicopters and enough equipment to require 98 air cargo missions, all at a cost of $43 million. A 10-day trip to China costs nearly $19 million, and a 4-day regional summit in Chile had a $10.8 million price tag. Of the 72.1 million total for these three trips, 84 percent was charged to the Defense Department.

At a time when Bill Clinton is gutting defense budgets and asking for military personnel to do more with less it is offensive that he draws tens of millions of dollars for presidential trips that yield very little. Instead of perpetuating the 13-year downward defense spending cycle this administration has continually promoted, Clinton should build up America's military that he so readily uses.

Does not it appear excessive to pin $72 million on three trips billed as goodwill tours? Bill Clinton gets my "Porker of the Week Award."

WHO WOULD HAVE THOUGHT THERE WOULD EVER BE A CONGRESS LIKE THIS ONE?

(Ms. NORTON asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend her remarks.)

Ms. NORTON. Mr. Speaker, who would have thought that our country would ever see so much gun carnage? Who would have thought that the killings would spread from districts like mine to districts of all my colleagues? Who would have thought there would ever be a Congress like this one who would have done nothing about the killing of children like those whose names I read killed since Columbine?

Lee Martindale, age 14, killed by gunfire on June 17, 1999, St. Louis, Missouri;

Roshon Hollinger, age 5, killed by gunfire on June 20, 1999, Atlanta, Georgia;

Darryl Hall, age 13, killed by gunfire on June 22, 1999, Jacksonville, Florida;

Khari Bartigan, age 18, killed by gunfire on June 23, 1999, Boston, Massachusetts;

Deslond Glenn, age 17, killed by gunfire on June 24, 1999, Fort Worth, Texas;

Fred Warren, age 18, killed by gunfire on June 25, 1999, Miami-Dade County, Florida;

Chau Tran, age 17, killed by gunfire on June 26, 1999, Lansing Michigan;

Richard Rogers, age 16, killed by gunfire on June 29, 1999, Fort Wayne, Indiana.

PUTTING EVERYDAY AMERICANS AHEAD OF BIG GOVERNMENT

(Mr. SCHAFFER asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. SCHAFFER. Mr. Speaker, government confiscates too much money from the American family. In my view, the Republican tax relief package currently sitting on the President's desk improves the fairness of the Tax Code.

For example, it reduces the marriage tax penalty which seems to me an obvious step in the right direction. It also gets rid of the estate tax, or as it is commonly known, the death tax. It will also make it easier for people to keep the family farm or the family business when an owner dies. It also makes it easier for people to obtain health insurance, a measure that will make a real difference in the lives of millions. It will also make it easier for families to save for their children's education, certainly something that should warm the hearts of those who wanted greater fairness in a tax code.

The Tax Code is unfair, but the President has threatened to veto our tax relief package maybe even today. I hope he will reconsider, Mr. Speaker, and put the everyday Americans ahead of big government.
